Trilith LIVE set to ignite south metro Atlanta as the region's ultimate entertainment destination with its grand opening season

Luxury Cinema, Passion City Church Also Set to Open on Campus

FAYETTEVILLE, GA, December 16, 2025 – Trilith LIVE, the region's newest state-of-the-art entertainment and special event venue, announces its grand opening season, set to ignite Fayetteville with a vibrant slate of concerts, family shows, corporate meetings and community events. The grand opening season begins Jan. 15, 2026, with its first entertainment event.

Adding to the excitement, Trilith LIVE will debut a luxury nine-screen cinema — introducing a next-generation moviegoing experience to the region — and celebrate the arrival of Passion City Church to the campus.

This multi-faceted development will transform the region's cultural landscape, offering an unparalleled array of live performances, cinematic experiences and unique events. The project has attracted a dynamic mix of touring artists, television productions, corporate meetings and conventions that will strengthen Fayette County's position as a hub for economic development.

"Trilith LIVE is more than just a venue; it's a new epicenter for arts, culture and entertainment in the region," said Matt McClain, executive director & general manager of Trilith LIVE. "We've built a space with state-of-the-art technology and incredible flexibility to attract a diverse lineup of live entertainment and special events. We are incredibly excited to open our doors and provide unforgettable experiences for this community and beyond."

Engineered for adaptability, the venue features an immersive sound system, massive LED walls and a full broadcast suite. With a capacity of up to 2,800, it will host everything from major concerts and performing arts to corporate events and banquets.

Passion City Church at Trilith LIVE

Adding to the community's vibrant spirit, Passion City Church will soon make Trilith LIVE its newest location. Known for its mission centered on the glory of God, radical grace and extravagant worship, the church will bring its message to Trilith LIVE to further enrich the diverse fabric of Trilith and underscore the development's commitment to fostering connection and shared experiences.

"Passion City Church is thrilled to make Trilith LIVE our home—a place to gather as followers of Jesus, build strong community, and host city-wide events," said Louie Giglio, global pastor of Passion City Church. "It will take all of us, through collective generosity, to bring this vision to life and create a space where we worship."
